Robert Cardali

Mr. Cardali has been involved in the personal injury business for over 35 years, with the past 18 years being dedicated to litigating cases on behalf of clients who have suffered catastrophic injuries as the result of the negligence of others. He has been admitted to practice in New York since 1993 after having attended St. John's University and Hofstra University School of Law.

As a highly respected member of the New York Bar, Mr. Cardali has successfully negotiated numerous multi-million dollar settlements on behalf of those injured or killed in construction, automobile, premises, and other types of accidents. He is known for his tireless and zealous efforts to achieve the best result possible for each client that he represents.

Although, as its senior partner, Mr. Cardali oversees the day-to-day operation of his busy law firm in New York City's financial district, he remains committed to providing each client with his personal input by monitoring the progress of every case from the time it enters the office until it is resolved.
